

Name: Greg Hall

Position: Paramedic / Firefighter

Years of Service: 9 years

Personal: Married to Kory, 3 children Kaylee, Madison, and Gage

Greg is a Paramedic Firefighter with the Watertown Fire Rescue. He was hired in 2001 at WFR and later in that year became a Nationally Registered Paramedic. He went on to earn his Firefighter I and II certifications in May of 2003. He was awarded paramedic of the year in 2007. Greg has certifications as a South Dakota State Fire Instructor, Hazardous Materials Technician, Tank Car and Highway Emergency Specialist, Structural Collapse Technician, Rope Rescue and Confined Space Rescue Technician, Trench Rescue Technician, Wildland Firefighter, and CPR/AED Instructor. Greg finds it very rewarding helping people sometimes on the worst day of their life and also takes pride in ensuring the crew is well trained. As an instructor Greg has instructed hundreds of citizens and first responders in South Dakota. Greg's other interests include camping with his family, hunting, fishing and other outdoor sports.