

Name: Scott Jongbloed

Position: Lieutenant/Paramedic

Years of Service: 10 years

Personal: Married to Maria, 3 children
Genevieve, Dominick, and Christina

Scott is currently a lieutenant and paramedic with the Watertown Fire Department. He was hired in 1999 at WFR and in August of 2000 became a Nationally Registered Paramedic. He would go on to receive his Firefighter I and II certifications in May of 2003. Scott has certifications as a South Dakota State Fire Instructor, Hazardous Materials Technician, Tank Car Specialist, Rope Rescue Technician, Confined Space Rescue Technician, Trench Rescue Technician, Wildland Firefighter, and CPR/AED Instructor. Scott's role as a lieutenant is ongoing training of his shift's firefighters and implementation and ongoing supervision of the probationary firefighter evaluation process. In his off time, Scott is an instructor for the Incident Management System, Firefighter I and II, and Mental Health First Aid.